FOR THE LIFT INDUSTRY

OUR EXPERIENCE

Lemon is a UK-based, 24/7 contact centre with over 20 years of experience in delivering tailored customer service solutions. Specialising in the lift and escalator industry, we collaborate with leading lift professionals to provide both daytime overflow and specialist out-of-hours support, ensuring exceptional service delivery for your client portfolios.

Since our inception in 2003, Lemon has been driven by a passion for engineering-focused customer care. With over 50 million calls answered, we bring unmatched expertise in handling complex interactions, including urgent lift entrapment calls, while prioritising passenger safety and rapid resolution.

Our seamless integration with your operations ensures we act as an extension of your in-house helpdesk, offering stress-free on-boarding and dedicated account management. Lemon's highly trained team follows your processes, logging calls directly into your Field Service Management (FSM) software and CRM systems. This is supported by robust quality assurance, clear reporting, and comprehensive call recording.

When a call-out is necessary, our on-call rota portal ensures swift and accurate live job dispatch. Our operators can also use your FSM software to send jobs to your engineers and follow these up with a phone call, SMS or email, to ensure details are relayed quickly and accurately to on-call personnel.

Lemon not only handles emergency calls but also proactively identifies and reports on rogue auto-diallers, minimising disruptions and enhancing operational efficiency. In addition, our versatile team also brings extensive expertise in supporting mobility solutions, including managing breakdowns for stairlifts and hoists. This allows us to deliver a comprehensive outsourcing solution tailored to the needs of the lift and escalator industry, serving both domestic and commercial markets.

With Lemon, you gain a reliable partner committed to delivering outstanding customer service, enhancing your reputation, and empowering your team with expert support, day or night.

“ Lemon’s mission is to build close working relationships with our clients and leverage our talent and technology to deliver flexibility, resilience and scalability to their business. ”
